THE RECOMMENDED 3 HOUR RULE

I make a motion to eliminate the 3-hour recommendation per day for service work of trusted servants who have over 90 days of sobriety.

The recommended 3-hour per day for trusted servants should be eliminated. Under 90 days sobriety yes, as a suggestion. There are no rules in Alcoholics Anonymous but there are those who think this is a rule. What are we to do when trusted servants don't show up? Just stop the meetings? An ideal meeting has 2 security, a chair and a Host. As it is now, we're lucky to have a host and a chair. There are times too when we have a no show and someone working security jumps over to host if they are trained. This 3-hour service work recommendation is going to leave many spots that will need to be filled. There are trusted servants who give up parts of their day just so we can have a meeting. There are many meetings where we have over 100 participants and without trusted servants stepping up and going over the 3-hour suggested service time the meeting may not be safe or worse not happen. That would be a dis-service for all. That's what service work is. We are all adults and should know our own limits.
